

Judges Standing for Retention General Election, November 3, 2020

There are 95 judges statewide that will appear on the 2020 general election ballot for a retention vote. This document provides information about these judges.

Iowa is divided into eight judicial districts. A chief judge, who is selected by the Iowa Supreme Court, heads each district.

Included in this information is the political party affiliation for each judge. Also included is the primary election history, since it identifies the ballot type: (D)emocrat or (R)epublican. The two major political parties have very different views on abortion, as documented in their respective state party platforms.

The Democrat party platform states under “Reproductive Rights and Family Planning” (line 932), “We support:” (line 934) “Roe vs. Wade” (line 936), and “fully funding:” (line 937) “b. PP” (line 939). Under “ACRONYMS USED IN THIS SECTION” (line 956), “PP - Planned Parenthood” (line 992). (<https://iowademocrats.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/09/2018-IDP-Platform.pdf>)

The Republican party platform states under the “Life” section, “1. We move the Iowa Republican party aggressively support a “life begins at conception” bill without exceptions.”, and “2. We oppose using public revenues for abortion or funding organizations which advocate it.” (<https://iowagop.org/about/platform/>)

Court Rulings:

- Save the 1, a Michigan-based organization that fights against exceptions for rape, incest or fetal abnormality in abortion-related legislation, sought to intervene in fetal heartbeat lawsuit to remove the exceptions clause. On 09/05/2018, Judge Huppert ruled against the group, writing in his order that the group's claims go far beyond the legal issues and facts in the initial lawsuit and allowing the group to intervene would delay the case.
- Granted summary judgment requested by Planned Parenthood to block enforcement Iowa's fetal heartbeat law, saying that the heartbeat law violates both the due process and equal protection provisions of the Iowa Constitution. Judge Huppert issued his ruling on 01/22/2019, the 46th anniversary of Roe v. Wade.

Michael J. Schilling
District 8B
District Court Judge

Judge Schilling was appointed to the bench in 2006 (Vilsack).

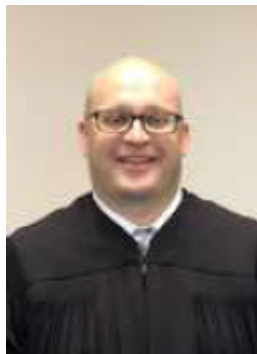

In 1976, Schilling graduated from the University of Iowa College of Law with distinction. While in law school, he participated in the Journal of Corporation Law, and the regional and national Client Counseling Competition.

Following graduation from law school, Schilling served as a VISTA volunteer lawyer on the three Native American reservations in Nebraska. He then served as an Assistant Public Defender before entering private practice. Schilling enjoyed an active criminal and civil trial practice for almost 30 years.

Since his appointment to the bench, Schilling has served on several committees, including the Iowa Supreme Court's Civil Justice Reform Task Force, and the Eighth Judicial District's Mediation Committee. Schilling served as drug court judges for several counties for about 9 years ending in December 2018. He is a member of the Des Moines County, Iowa State, and American Bar Associations, the American Judicature Society, and the Iowa Judges Association. Schilling serves as a 4th-grade religious education instructor for his church. He enjoys running, writing, reading history, and making memories with his wife of 35 years, their three children, and extended families.
