Safe Haven Law

Help for new parents who decide they can't parent. Since 2002, it has been used 53 times. Custody can be relinquished:

- by the parent or someone with their permission
- without fear of arrest or going to court
- for a newborn up to 90 days old
- by placing a newborn safely at a hospital or healthcare facility and notifying staff (by phone or in person) OR
- by calling 911 and relinquishing physical custody to the first responder.
